"We haven't had a connection with Iran since 1979. Even in the darkest days of the Cold War we had links to the Soviet Union.

If something happens it's virtually assured that we won't get it right, that there will be miscalculations which would be extremely dangerous in that part of the world... I think any channel would be terrific."

Ret. Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff

Diplomacy—NOT WAR!—With Iran

Dear Senator,

I'm a voting constituent concerned about the threat of war with Iran, and urge you to:

- Speak out on the Senate floor against a military attack on Iran which would, as Secretary of Defense Leon Panetta warned, "consume the Middle East in a confrontation and a conflict that we would regret."
- Reject broad sanctions which continue to punish ordinary Iranians, harm the U.S. and global economy, and undermine diplomacy.
- Heed Admiral Mullen's call to establish a channel for U.S.-Iran communications, and press for direct U.S.-Iran negotiations to prevent violence and nuclear proliferation.

I look forward to your response on preventing war with Iran.

Sincerely,
